

Songs on the WAVA (Washington DC) Radio Tape that Didi sent to me in Nepal.

I mention the cassette on April 10, 1985, so she likely recorded it in mid-March, given the speed of mail delivery from USA to Nepal. Songs were interspersed with ads and channel changes.

In order of play:

SIDE 1

“Take Me With U,” Prince and the Revolution.*

“One More Night,” Phil Collins.

“The Bird,” Morris and The Time.

“Some Like It Hot,” The Power Station.

“The Heat Is On,” Glenn Fry.

“I Can't Hold Back,” Survivor.

“Crazy for You,” Madonna (end of song only).

“One Night in Bangkok,” Chess / Murray Head.

“We Are the World,” USA for Africa.

SIDE 2

“You're the Inspiration,” Chicago.

“High on You,” Survivor.

“Rhythm of the Night,” DeBarge.

“Rock You Like a Hurricane,” Scorpions.

“Keeping the Faith,” Billy Joel.

“Rio,” Duran Duran.

“Neutron Dance,” Pointer Sisters.

“Hello,” Lionel Richie.

“Sharp Dressed Man,” ZZ Top.

“Missing You,” Diana Ross.

“That Was Yesterday,” Foreigner.

“Rosanna,” Toto (start of song only).

*I'd forgotten this song was from Purple Rain, and thought it was perhaps by The Pretenders, who probably would have done just as good a job with it.
